

Suggested Reading List:

- National Geographic Destinations: Treasures of Alaska, Last Great American Wilderness
- Glacier Bay, The Land and the Silence by the Sierra Club
- The Island Within by Richard Nelson: a spiritual Natural History Book
- A Naturalists Guide to Southeast Alaska.
- The Alaska Travel Journal of Archibald Menzies 1793-1794 by Olsen:
- Travels in Alaska by John Muir: Printed by the Sierra Club
- Land of the Ocean Mists, the wild ocean coast west of Glacier Bay by Francis Coldwell: About Lituya Area
- Spirited Waters: by Jennifer Hahn: an inspirational solo Kayaking journey through the inside passage
- The Tlinget: a reference guide to our indigenous people culture and history.
- For Bird Lovers we suggest the Sibley Books:
  - Sibley Field Guide to Birds of Western North America by David Allen Sibley
  - Sibley Field Guide to Bird Life & Behavior by David Allen Sibley
- For Botanists enthusiasts we recommend:
  - Discovering Wild Plants, Alaska, Western Canada, The Northwest by Janice J. Schofield
  - Plants of Western British Columbia including Washington, Oregon and Alaska by Pojar & Mackinnon

The Bookstore at Glacier Bay National park has wonderful books on Alaska and Glacier Bay. It is also available on line.

<http://www.nps.gov/glba/>

Other great websites are:

Geology & Glaciology: <http://www2.nature.nps.gov/geology/parks/glba/>

NOAA Marine Mammals: <http://nmml.afsc.noaa.gov/>:

Once on board we provide you with Birding lists, Plant literature and a wealth of knowledge on our wildlife both marine and land based. For young adults and children we suggest you go to the State of Alaska Kids web page for information for this age group.